

Snom™ D7XX VoIP Phones Products Are Now Zoom-Certified

*The VTech® D7XX Series Desk Phones
Officially Certified as Supported Devices for Zoom Phone*

CHICAGO (February 17, 2023) – Snom™, a subsidiary of VTech Holdings Limited, announced today that the D7XX Series of desk phones are now certified for use with Zoom services. Snom’s D7XX Series of desk phones are adaptable for those working remotely, in-office, or a hybrid model.

“We have built a leading suite of VoIP communication solutions, and now they are available to an even broader audience through Zoom’s leading enterprise community,” said Chris Trittin, Senior Sales Director, Snom Americas, a VTech Company.

“The Zoom Hardware Certification Program creates a broad ecosystem of products certified to work with Zoom services, giving customers reliable solutions and providing better communication experiences,” said Jeff Fox, Strategic Alliances Marketing Lead, Zoom. “The D7XX Series of desk phones from Snom is an important addition to Zoom’s existing devices certified under our Hardware Certification Program, and will be sought out by customers.”
